Chapter 1. General Provisions

Article 1 (Name)

1 This corporation is called Japan International Cooperation System (JICS) (hereinafter referred to as "the Foundation").

Article 2 (Offices)

- 1 The Foundation shall locate its principal office in Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo, Japan.
- 2 The Foundation may establish a subsidiary office or offices elsewhere as deemed necessary after the Board of Directors votes so to do.

Article 3 (Purposes)

1 The purposes of the Foundation are to promote higher quality international cooperation by cooperating in the appropriate and efficient implementation of Japan's Official Development Assistance ("ODA") and other international cooperation programs for developing countries and territories and thus to contribute to the economic and social development of the world as well as the enhancement of friendly international relations.

Article 4 (Business)

- 1 The Foundation shall conduct the following business while paying due respect to the work of private enterprises in order to accomplish the purposes described in the preceding article:
- (1) Business which contributes to the promotion of the appropriate and efficient implementation of grant aid programs, technical cooperation programs and loan programs which are parts of Japan's ODA;
- (2) Business which contributes to the promotion of the appropriate and efficient implementation of international cooperation programs executed by international organizations, foreign governments or other entities engaged in international cooperation activities;
- (3) Follow-up activities and after-care activities for such programs mentioned above in items (1) and (2); (4) Research and studies on methods of efficient implementation of international
- cooperation;
- (5) Education and support which promote international cooperation; and
- (6) Other activities necessary to achieve the purposes of the Foundation.

Chapter 2. Assets and Accounting

Article 5 (Composition of Assets)

- 1 The assets of the Foundation shall consist of the following:
- (1) The assets listed in the inventory at the time of the establishment;
- (2) Donations in cash and in kind;
- (3) Income generated from the assets; (4) Membership fees;(5) Income from business operations; and
- (6) Other income

Article 6 (Kinds of Assets)

- 1 The Assets of the Foundation shall consist of two kinds of assets-endowment and operating assets.
- 2 The endowment shall consist of the following:
- (1) Those assets listed in the endowment section in the inventory at the time of the establishment;
- (2) Those assets donated specified as endowment; and
- (3) Those assets which the Board of Directors resolved to transfer to the endowment from the operating assets.
- 3 Assets other than endowment shall be operating assets.

Article 7 (Management of Assets)

- 1 The President shall manage the assets of the Foundation, and its management methods
- shall be determined separately by the President with the vote of the Board of Directors. 2 Of the endowment, cash shall be managed and kept in a safe and secure manner, such as time deposits at post offices or banks, entrustment to trust companies, and the purchase of national, public and corporate bonds.

Article 8 (Restrictions on Disposal of Endowment)

1 The endowment may not be disposed of or used as a collateral. However, should unavoidable circumstances in the execution of business of the Foundation arise, part of the endowment may be disposed of, or the whole or part of it may be used as collateral provided that this is approved by a vote of two-thirds or more of the existing members of the Board of Directors and the approval of the Board of Trustees, and also the approval of the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Article 9 (Expenditure)

1 Expenses of the Foundation shall be paid out of the operating assets.

Article 10 (Business Plan and Budget)

1 The President shall prepare the Foundation's business plan and the income and expenditure budget therefor, which shall be submitted to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, after the vote of two thirds or more of the existing members of the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Trustees, prior to the commencement of each accounting period. The same shall apply in the event of any changes thereto.

Article 11 (Provisional Budget)

- 1 Notwithstanding the provision of the preceding article, when a budget can not be finalized for unavoidable reasons, the President may receive income and make payments based on the preceding year's income and expenditure budget with the vote
- of the Board of Directors until the day on which a new budget is approved. 2 The income and expenditure described in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed as part of the newly approved income and expenditure budget.

Article 12 (Business Report and Settlement of Accounts)

1 The Foundation shall report to the Minister of Foreign Affairs on its business and settlement of accounts of income and expenditure within three months after the end of each financial year, by submitting a business report, an income and expenditure statement, a statement of net worth, a balance sheet and an inventory prepared by the President, be audited by the Auditors, approved by a vote of two-thirds or more of the existing members of the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Trustees. In this case, if there has been any change in the total assets, the registration thereof shall be made within two weeks and a certified copy of corporate registration shall be attached.

Article 13 (Long-term Borrowing)

1 When the Foundation intends to make long-term borrowing, excluding short-term borrowing which is to be paid off with the income of that particular accounting period, it must be approved by a vote of two-thirds or more of the existing members of the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Trustees, and also must be approved by the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Article 14 (Assumption of Duties and Waiver of Rights)

1 Except for those provided for in the budget, when the Foundation intends to assume new obligations or waive any rights, it must be approved by a vote of two-thirds or more of the existing members of the Board of Directors, approved by the Board of Trustees and also approved by the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Article 15 (Accounting Period)

1 The accounting period of the Foundation shall commence on April 1 every year and end on March 31 of the following year.
