

Description of the Organization and its Activities

JICS is Japan's only public procurement agency

Since its establishment in 1989, JICS, with fairness and specialization as its strong points, has been providing services matching the needs of various international cooperation activities related mainly to Japan's Official Development Assistance (ODA).

